Commission Chair

President

By virtue of the South Carolina Code of Laws, the Technical College of the Lowcountry Area Commission has been granted the responsibility for local governance of the College. The Commission delegates to the College President the authority to handle all personnel actions except those pertaining to the President.

Specific duties and responsibilities are outlined in Section 59-53-51 and Section 59-53-52 of the 1976 South Carolina Code of Laws as amended and in legislation establishing the Area Commission. Additional functions may be delegated by the State Board for Technical and Comprehensive Education.
