

TECHNICAL COLLEGE
OF THE LOWCOUNTRY

POLICY: Instructional Projects Generating Revenue
Number: 3.1.6

Responsibility: Academic Affairs
Last Updated: February 23, 2023
State Policy/Law:

---

Commission Chair

---

President

Instructional Projects Generating Revenue, or Live Work, is a paid or contracted service performed by students under real-world working conditions as an integral part of a course of study to enhance their knowledge and skills. The person, program, institution, or organization for which live work is done shall assume all responsibility for the results of the work being done by students. The College will establish procedures for services, payment, and pick up for live work.