The Technical College of the Lowcountry (TCL) Library provides resources and facilities for the use of the students, faculty, and staff of TCL. Public library patrons from the College's service area may use the majority of library resources and services while in a TCL Library location. Library membership in two consortia, the Partnership Among South Carolina Academic Libraries (PASCAL) and the Lowcountry Library Federation (LLF), also allow reciprocal use of the library's resources and facilities by patrons of consortia member institutions.
