

Paralegal

Are you professional, poised and passionate?

Find your fit with TCL's Paralegal program. Under supervision of a lawyer, paralegals conduct research, prepare documents and perform substantive legal tasks. Paralegals work in law offices, inside courtrooms and in other government and business settings. It's time to make your mark.

“A degree earned from TCL's paralegal program establishes graduates with the credentials and training to excel on their path to a legal career.”
